

BARTHOLOMEW COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

POLICY FOR SALES AND SOLICITATIONS ON LIBRARY PROPERTY

1. At its discretion, the library will provide a bulletin board and space for pamphlets, flyers, newsletters, and any other items that promote not-for-profit activities and education opportunities in Bartholomew County or in Indiana.
  - A. The decision to display any promotion is made by the library staff on case-by-case basis.

2. A not-for-profit group using a library meeting room may distribute pamphlets, flyers, newsletters, and other items to persons attending the meeting.
  - A. Items can be distributed only during the meeting and only in the meeting room.

3. Restricted from the library property (including parking lots and Visitors Center grounds) are the following:
  - A. Food sales by vendors not recruited by the Bartholomew County Public Library or the Visitors Center.
  - B. Any entertainment or exhibition not recruited by Bartholomew County Public Library or the Visitors Center.
  - C. Pamphlets and other advertisements or solicitations for:
    - political parties and candidates
    - trade unions / collective bargaining groups
    - religious groups
    - not-for-profit charities and associations
    - profit-making companies and organizations
    - any individual or groups of individuals promoting a concept or product